Mr. Gazetteer,

IT is obſerved concerning the Generation of Molattoes, that they are ſeldom well belov'd either by the Whites or the Blacks. Their Approach towards Whiteneſs, makes them look back with ſome kind of Scorn upon the Colour they ſeem to have left, while the Negroes, who do not think them better than themſelves, return their Contempt with Intereſt: And the Whites, who reſpect them no Whit the more for the nearer Affinity in Colour, are apt to regard their Behaviour as too bold and aſſuming, and bordering upon Impudence. As they are next to Negroes, and but juſt above 'em, they are terribly afraid of being thought Negroes, and therefore avoid as much as poſſible their Company or Commerce: and Whitefolks are as little fond of the Company of Molattoes.

When People by their Induſtry or good Fortune, from mean Beginnings find themſelves in Circumſtances a little more eaſy, there is an Ambition ſeizes many of them immediately to become Gentlefolks: But 'tis no eaſy Thing for a Clown or a Labourer, on a ſudden to hit in all reſpects, the natural and eaſy Manner of thoſe who have been genteely educated: And 'tis the Curſe of Imitation, that it almoſt always either under-does or over-does.

The true Gentleman, who is well known to be ſuch, can take a Walk, or drink a Glaſs, and converſe freely, if there be occaſion, with honeſt Men of any Degree below him, without degrading or fearing to degrade himſelf in the leaſt. For my Part, I am an ordinary Mechanick, and I pray I may always have the Grace to know my ſelf and my Station. As little as I have learnt of the World, whenever I find a Man well dreſs'd whom I do not know, and obſerve him mighty cautious how he mixes in Company, or converſes, or engages in any kind of equal Affair with ſuch as appear to be his Inferiors; I always judge him, and I generally find him, to be ſome new Gentleman, or rather half Gentleman, or Mungrel, an unnatural Compound of Earth and Braſs like the Feet of Nebuchadnezzar's Image. And if in the Way of my Buſineſs, I find ſome young Woman Miſtreſs of a newly fine furniſhed Houſe, treating me with a kind of Superiority, a diſtant ſort of Freedom, and a high Manner of Condeſcenſion that might become a Governor's Lady, I cannot help imagining her to be ſome poor Girl that is but lately well married: Or if I ſee ſomething in her very haughty and imperious, I conclude that 'tis not long ſince ſhe was ſomebody's Servant Maid.

With Regard to the Reſpect ſhown them by the true Gentry and the no Gentry, our half Gentry are exactly in the Caſe of the Mulattoes abovementioned. They are the Ridicule and Contempt of both ſides.

There is my former Acquaintance (but now he cannot ſpeak to me) the lumpiſh ſtupid Jack Chopſtick, while he kept in his natural Sphere, which (as that of all heavy Bodies) is the loweſt, the Figure he made among Acquaintance of his own Rank was well enough; none of us envy'd him, 'tis true, nor none of us deſpis'd him: But now he has got a little Money, the Caſe is exceedingly alter'd. Without Experience of Men or Knowledge of Books, or even common Wit, the vain Fool thruſts himſelf into Converſation with People of the beſt Senſe and the moſt polite. All his Abſurdities, which were ſcarcely taken Notice of among us, ſtand evident among them, and afford them continual Matter of Diverſion. At the ſame time, we below cannot help conſidering him as a Monkey that climbs a Tree, the higher he goes, the more he ſhows his Arſe.

To conclude with the Thought I began; there are perhaps Molattoes in Religion, in Politicks, in Love, and in ſeveral other Things; but of all ſorts of Molattoes, none appear to me ſo monſtrouſly ridiculous as the Molatto Gentleman. I am Yours, &c.

BLACKAMORE.

[From the Votes of the Hon. House of Commons of Great Britain.]

Jovis 10 Die Maii, 1733.

MR. Speaker reported, that the House attended his Majesty yesterday with their Address, to which his Majesty was pleased to give this most gracious Answer, viz.

Gentlemen,

I give you my Thanks for this new Instance of your Duty, and Affection. Nothing can be more acceptable to Me, than your great Readiness in complying with this Demand, and the Personal Regard you have shewn to Me and My Family.

Sir Charles Turner (according to Order) reported from the Committee of the whole House, who were to take His Majesty's most Gracious Message into Consideration, which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place, and afterwards delivered in at the Table; where the same was agreed unto by the House, and is as followeth, viz.

Resolved,

That out of the Money now remaining in the Receipt of the Exchequer arisen by Sale of the Lands in the Island of St. Christophers, His Majesty be enabled to apply the Sum of Eighty Thousand Pounds for the Marriage Portion of the Princess Royal.

A Memorial of the Council, and Representatives of the Province of the Massachusetts-Bay, was presented to the House, and read, laying before the House the Difficulties and Distresses they labour under, arising from a Royal Instruction given to the present Governor of the said Province, in relation to the issuing and disposing of the publick Monies of the said Province; and moving the House to allow their Agent to be heard by Council upon this Affair; representing also the Difficulties they are under from a Royal Instruction given, as aforesaid, restraining the Emission of Bills of Credit; and concluding with a Petition, that the House will take their Case into Consideration, and become intercessors for them with his Majesty, that he would be graciously pleased to withdraw the said Instructions, as contrary to their Charter, and tending in their own Nature to distress, if not to ruin them.

Resolved,

That the Complaint, contained in this Memorial and Petition, is frivolous and groundless, an high insult upon his Majesty's Government, and tending to shake off the Dependency of the said Colony upon this Kingdom, to which by Law and Right they are and ought to be subject.

Ordered, That the said Memorial and Petition be rejected.

A Complaint being made to the House, of the Proceedings of the House of Representatives of the said Province of Massachusetts-Bay against Jeremiah Dunbar, Esq; and the Censure passed upon him by the said Representatives in the Months of December and January last, for giving Evidence in the Session of Parliament preceding the last before a Committee of this House, to whom a Bill then depending in this House for the better securing and encouraging the Trade of his Majesty's Sugar-Colonies in America was committed; and a Paper Printed at Boston in New-England, Intitled, Votes of the House of Representatives being offered to the House;

The said Paper was brought up to the Table; and several Paragraphs therein were read, in which the aforementioned Proceedings against the said Jeremiah Dunbar, and the said Censure past upon him are contained.

Resolved Nemine Contradicente,

That the presuming to call any Person to Account, or to pass a Censure upon him, for Evidence given by such Person before this House or any Committee thereof, is an audacious Proceeding, and an high Violation of the Privileges of this House.

Ordered,

That a Committee be appointed to enquire, who were the Authors and Abettors of the Proceedings against Jeremiah Dunbar, Esq; in the House of Representatives of the Massachusetts-Bay, in the Month of December last past, at Boston in New-England, on Account of Evidence given by the said Jeremiah Dunbar before a Committee of this House in the Year 1730.

And a Committee was appointed accordingly; and all that come are to have Voices; and they have Power to send for Persons, Papers, and Records.

Ordered,

That the Master of the Rolls have Leave to make a Motion, it being near Four of the Clock.

And he moved the House accordingly, and presented to the House a Petition of the Trustees for establishing the Colony of Georgia in America, which was read; reciting, that his Majesty hath been pleased to take into Consideration, that many of his poor Subjects, and many Foreigners, who are willing to become his Subjects, are reduced to great Necessities, and would gladly be settled in the British Provinces in America, where by cultivating the Lands, at present waste and desolate, they might not only gain a comfortable Subsistance for themselves and Families, but also strengthen His Majesty's Colonies, and increase the Trade, Navigation, and Wealth of Great Britain; and further reciting, that His Majesty, for the more orderly carrying on the said good Purposes, hath by his Royal Charter, bearing Date the Ninth Day of June, Anno Domini 1732, constituted a Body-Politick and Corporate, by the Name of the Trustees for establishing the Colony of Georgia in America, and hath granted unto the said Trustees and their Successors for ever, certain Lands & Territories in South-Carolina, in Trust for establishing the said Colony, and hath erected the same into an Independent Province by the Name of Georgia, and thereby empowered the said Trustees to take Subscriptions, and to gather and collect such Monies, as should by any Person or Persons be contributed, which said Trustees are at their own Desire restrained by Clauses in the Charter from receiving any Salary, Fee, or Profit whatsoever; and setting forth, that many Saltzburgers, and other persecuted and distressed Protestants would be glad to go and settle in the said Province of Georgia, where they may find under His Majesty's Protection an Asylum from Persecution and Arbitrary Power, but are unable at their own Charges to transport themselves thither; And that, as the settling them there will be a Charity highly becoming this Protestant Kingdom, the employing them in raising rough Materials for several of our most useful Manufactures (with which none of our Plantations at present supply us) will be of great Service to the Trade of this Nation, increase the Number of His Majesty's Subjects, and give further Employment to our Poor at Home; and that the Petitioners (notwithstanding Benefactions of many well disposed and charitable People) find themselves unable to send over any Number of the said distressed Protestants without the Assistance of Parliament; and therefore praying the House to take the Premises into Consideration, and grant such Relief therein, as this House shall think meet.

Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer acquainted the House, that His Majesty being informed of the Contents of the said Petition, had been pleased to command him to acquaint this House, that His Majesty recommends it to their Consideration, to make such Provision in the Premisses, as the House shall think fit.

Ordered,

That the said Petition be referred to the Consideration of a Committee of the whole House.

Resolved,

That this House will, upon Wednesday Morning next, resolve it self into a Committee of the whole House, to consider of the said Petition.

The Order of the Day, for the House to resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House upon the Bill for the better Regulating the Proceedings of the Ecclesiastical Courts within that Part of Great Britain called England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, was read;

But it appearing that there were not forty Members present;

The House adjourn'd 'till to Morrow Morning Nine of the Clock.

St. Christophers, June 30.

THIS Morning about 5 o'Clock the Wind came at N E with Rain, increasing to a Hurricane, or very Violent Gale of Wind, vereing to the Eastward about 10 o'Clock, putting several Vessels from their Anchors to Sea, and driving others on shore; about One in the Afternoon the Wind shifting to the Southward, brought in a Prodigious Sea, by which all the Vessels left Riding in Bassaterre Road, were drove on shore, and Bilg'd, except Capt. Brown who came on shore the next day, and the Padington, Capt. Bedgood who rode out the Gale. A List of which Vessels, those at Sandy Point, Old Road. and Deep Bay, with their Circumstances, and the Conditions they were in; as also an Account from some other Ports, from the best

Son about 13 Years old.

The whole Sea, to Leward of this Iſland, and Sabia ſeem to be, as it were, cover'd with Wrecks.

At Spaniſh Town.

Phenix of New-York, for Holland, drove on ſhore, his Mate was Drowned, himſelf and Men all ſav'd.

To Leward of Sabia.

Wingfield of Boſton for London, loſt all his Maſts, ſet Jury Maſts in their ſtead, and at Sea in the Lat. 29. Long 67, July 22 was met by Potter of Rhode-Iſland from St. Chriſtophers, wanting nothing, but under ſhort Sail, bound for London.

Two Days after Potter met a very large Ship a little to the Southward of Bermudas, who had loſt all her Maſts and was ſtanding to the Eaſtward under Jury Maſts with Reeft Courſes and Top-gallant ſails in ſtead of her Top-ſails; did not ſpeak with her, but took her to be a French or Dutch built Veſſel.

London, May 31. A few Days ſince, in the Evening, a young Woman going between Greenwich and Charlton in Kent, was ſet upon by three Men, who carried her out of the Road, and committed a Rape on her Body, and otherwiſe abuſed and beat her in ſuch a barbatous manner, that ſhe became almoſt ſenſeleſs; they afterwards threw her into a Pond, with an Intent to drown her; ſhe was ſoon after found, and dragg'd out half dead. Two of the Men have been ſince taken up and ſecured in the Round-Houſe at Greenwich, in order to be examined, as ſoon as the Woman, who is very ill of the blows and bruiſes receiv-ed, is able to appear againſt them.

They write from Stockholm, that the Turkiſh Envoy has preſented his Sweediſh Majeſty with a Grammar French and Turkiſh, Printed at Conſtantinople.

Deptford, May 31. The following is a more particular Account of the barbarous Uſage the poor Woman met with on the Road to Charlton than mentioned in the News Pa-pers, viz. The Woman paſſing through But-Lane, in this Town, and asking a Man, who overtook her, the Way to Charlton, had for Anſwer that he was going thi-ther, and would ſhew her the Way; and ſoon after join-ing two of his Companions, they all went together, and carried her into a Gardener's Garden; upon this the Woman ſaid that this could not be the right Way; where-upon they threw her down, and uſed her in a moſt inde-cent Manner: The poor Creature, after many Struggles getting up again, and begging for Mercy, they knock'd her down with a Club, and then, with their Hands, they tore her Privy Parts in a terrible Manner, which done they ſtuff'd her with Horſe-Dung, and afterwards threw her into a Pond near the Place, where ſhe lay ſenſeleſs, till pull'd out by a Butcher who came that Way. The Woman was carried to our Work-houſe, where ſhe remain-ed ſenſeleſs for ſome Days; upon this the Pariſh called a Veſtry, and unanimouſly agreed to proſecute the Offender or Offenders when taken, at their own Expence; ſince which one is taken, and was carried to Greenwich on Sa-turday laſt, and there examined by Juſtice Bell and Ju-ſtice Savory, and the Woman ſwore poſitively to him; and another is alſo taken but ſhe could not ſwear poſitive-ly againſt that Perſon; the Third is run away. 'Tis ho-ped the Example of this Pariſh will be followed by o-thers, wherever ſuch Barbarities ſhall happen.

June 1. The Right Hon. Sir Joſeph Jekyll, Maſter of the Rolls, has given 500 l. towards ſettling the poor Fa-milies in the New Colony of Georgia, and the Lady Je-kyll 100 l. and Yeſterday both the ſaid Sums were paid into the Hands of the Truſtees for the ſettling the ſaid Colony, at their Office in New Palace Yard, Weſt-minſter.

May 17. We hear the Houſe of Commons has been pleaſed to grant 10000 l. towards eſtabliſhing the new Co-lony of Georgia in America; and that a great many Fa-milies of the Saltzburghers will ſpeedily be ſent thither, in order to ſettle in the ſaid Colony.

Boſton, Auguſt 13. We are well inform'd, that Books of a conſiderable Value are come in Alden conſign'd to Mr. Belcher, his Excellency's Son, for Harvard College, and Yale College, a Preſent from the Rev. Dean Berkley.

Lancaſter, July 20. Some time ſince Mr. Caleb Sawyer, an ancient Inhabitant of this Place, going with ſome o-thers to a Meadow of his, about Two or Three Miles from home, to mowing; and they having Occaſion to drink, repaired to a Spring in the ſaid Meadow; and at the Time of drinking, the ſaid Mr. Sawyer acquainting thoſe with him, that he had, Eight Years before, let drop a Bottle of Milk accidentally into the ſaid Spring, which was at the Top about Two Feet over, but larger beneath; and they together having a mind to try for the Bottle, not thinking of the Milk, try'd a while with a Hoe, when they fetch'd up the Bottle tight ſtopt with the Milk in it as freſh as ever, and with as good Taſte: But in leſs than an Hour the Odour of it was ſo very offenſive, that there was no abiding of it.
